Dear Mr. Bristow:

The enclosed documents were reviewed under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Title 5, United States Code, Section 552. Deletions have been made to protect information which is exempt from disclosure, with the appropriate exemptions noted on the page next to the excision. In addition, a deleted page information sheet was inserted in the file to indicate where pages were withheld entirely. The exemptions used to withhold information are marked below and explained on the enclosed Explanation of Exemptions:

32 pages were reviewed and 27 pages are being released.

Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].

This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.

We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.

In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S. C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.
For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under “Contact Us.” The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP’s FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following website: https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within sixty (60) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI’s FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@ic.fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state “Dispute Resolution Services.” Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

✓ The enclosed material is from the main investigative files in which the subject of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject. Our experience has shown when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main files. Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative files. If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

✓ See additional information which follows.

Sincerely,

Enclosure(s)

In response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, enclosed is a processed copy of the FBI Headquarters file 185-HQ-1072, FBI Los Angeles file 185-LA-244, and FBI New York file 185-NY-812. To minimize costs to both you and the FBI, duplicate copies of the same document were not processed. This material is being provided to you at no charge.

Due to the age and condition of the original documents, we have found that some of the copies reproduced have been extremely difficult to read. While we realize the quality of some of the documents is poor, every effort has been made to obtain the best copies possible.
EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

(b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;

(b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;

(b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;

(b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;

(b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;

(b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or

(b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

(d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;

(j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;

(k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;

(k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;

(k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;

(k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;

(k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;

(k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service he release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;

(k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

Enclosed for the Bureau are seven (7) copies of a letterhead memorandum, dated and captioned as above, at Boston. One (1) copy each of the enclosed LHM is being designated locally to U.S. Secret Service, Cambridge, Mass., and to the USA's Office, Boston, Mass.

On 10/27/78, the facts in this matter were discussed with AUSA JOHN H. LA CHANCE, Boston, Mass. After a consideration of this matter, AUSA LA CHANCE advised that he would decline Federal prosecution.

In view of AUSA LA CHANCE's decision, Boston is conducting no further investigation in this matter.
Threatening Letter to Rhodesian Prime Minister
IAN SMITH, March 3, 1978

The investigation in this matter was predicated on information received from the United States Department of State (USDOS) that the Rhodesian Liaison Service passed on information that Rhodesian's Prime Minister Ian Smith received a letter postmarked March 3, 1978, [Redacted]. This letter stated, "Smith liar and traitor" and (writer) hoped (Smith) will be shot by some spy in Rhodesia as befitting all traitors." Return address: [Redacted] Post Office Box GWEPN, [Redacted]

Personnel at the U.S. Post Office, [Redacted] advised that no Post Office Box with the designation "GWEPN" exists or ever existed. However, [Redacted] formerly had Post Office Box [Redacted] and on September 10, 1976, changed her address to Post Office Box GWP 1044, Postal officials further advised that [Redacted] requested that any mail received for [Redacted] be placed in his Post Office Box, as he is a friend of hers and would see that she received it.

[Redacted] advised that [Redacted] rented a room from him for approximately two or three weeks in February-March, 1978, and used this address while there. [Redacted] further advised that [Redacted] left in March, 1978, and he does not know where she went; however, she was friendly with [Redacted].
advised that he is a friend of ___________ and has known her for several years. ___________ stated that ___________ is from Rhodesia and has relatives residing there whom she travelled to visit. ___________ further stated that ___________ is currently in Rhodesia, having left ___________ in March, 1978 and can be reached at Post Office Box ___________. ___________ stated that ___________ was formerly associated with the ___________.

ReFD-71, dated 10/15/78.

A review of referenced FD-71 indicates representatives of the US Department of State, the US Secret Service, and the New York City PD Intelligence Unit for all advised of the unknown threats against Prime Minister IAN SMITH.

Contact with the above agencies has not furnished any positive information concerning this matter.

Due to the above and the Prime Minister's turn to Rhodesia, no further action is being taken and this matter is being placed in a closed status. It is further noted since all agencies have been notified a SUCOP is not necessary.
